

Rain delay at Gardens4u

Normally I don't mind working in the rain, but all my equipment including gloves, boots and raincoat, are still soaked from yesterday...

this first picture was a "selfie" I was concentrating so hard on taking the picture, that I forgot to smile...

This next picture was taken by my son when I picked him up from school on my way home from the garden I worked in for 5 hours. Note the plastic protecting the seats of my van...

I have every kids dream job; I get paid to play in the mud!
